Editorial Index 1995

JANUARY

France ...6-9

Papua New Guinea ...13-14

PNG, a sleeping giant in fisheries. Its fisheries resource potential may be as high as 750,000 tonnes per annum.

Finance, Law & Insurance ...16-19

U.S. tuna controversy ...20-21

E.U. fishing port survey ...22-29

Processing: Weighing & sorting ...31-35

FEBRUARY

Germany & E. Europe ...6-13

Longlining & Jigging I ...16-22

Processing: Boxing & Handling ...23-25

Fuel & Lubrication ...28-32

Vessels & Yards ...33-39

Three significant deliveries were made: The Veronica became the largest fishing vessel in the Irish fleet; the Johanna Marie, a 120m freezer factory trawler joined the Dutch fleet; and the Antartic II left Norway for the waters off southern Argentina.

MARCH

Fishing '95 exhibition preview ...7-18

UK & Ireland ...19-32

Developments in the study of deepwater fish resources off the NW coast of Scotland, plus arguments for the withdrawal of the UK from the Common Fisheries Policy.

Processing: Fishmeal & Fish oil ...33-38

Fishing Vessel Completions 1994 ...41-56

SUPPLEMENT: Swedefish Group

APRIL

Spain & Portugal ...8-24

Spanish Fisheries Minister, Mr Luis Atienza, outlines the conditions of Spain's full accession to the EU.

Deck Machinery & Hydraulics ...28-31

Paint & Corrosion ...32-33

Electronics: Fishfinding ...34-38

MAY

Denmark & The Faroe Islands ...9-21

World Fishing Exhibition '95 - Copenhagen preview ...22-36

Fishing Vessel Monitoring, Part 1 ...37-39

Training & Fisheries Development ...40-49

Ice & Refrigeration I ...50-60

SUPPLEMENT: Denmark - Fisheries exporters to the world

JUNE

Safety at Sea ...8-16

Nets & Gear Part 1 ...20-30

Holland & Belgium ...33-37

Fishing Vessel Monitoring Part 2 ...39-40

Fishing Vessels on order 1995...41-44

JULY

Propulsion ...8-13

A new approach to vessel monitoring ...14-15

A new system for vessel monitoring developed by a British company

Processing: Processing machinery ...17-23

Norway ...24-29

Aquaculture ...33-37

AUGUST

Vessels & Yards ...6-11

The Serene and the Charisma join the Scottish fleet.

Iceland ...14-23

The herring and redfish fisheries are investigated plus the changes happening to the Icelandic fleet composition.

Electronics: Communication ...26-31

Diesel engine news ...32-35

Longlining & Jigging II ...36-39

SEPTEMBER

Fish Expo'95-Seattle exhibition preview...11-27

USA & Canada ...30-37

UN Conference on Straddling Stocks ...38-39

The sixth and final session of this conference concluded with delegates reaching agreement on a 48 article draft agreement. Full details are provided by Martin Gill.

Processing: Markets & Auctions ...40-44

OCTOBER

Australia ...11-18

Electronics: Navigation ...19-24

Papua New Guinea Part 1 ...25-27

PNG has tremendous fisheries potential and is now setting out on a major fisheries development programme, by David Thomson.

New Zealand ... 28-32

Fishing Vessel Design ... 33-36

NOVEMBER

Fish Africa'95 - Exhibition preview...11-25

South Africa & Namibia ...26-39

A profile of potentially the most exciting fishing industries in the world today. Articles by the Namibian Minister of Fisheries and the Deputy Permanent Secretary.

Papua New Guinea Part 2 ...25-27

Second part looks at two elements in the country's development - Management and Conservation.

Ice & Refrigeration II ... 45-57

DECEMBER

Wolfgang Krone 'The winds of change'...11-12

Electronics: GMDSS ...13-21

Asia ...22-32

Code to Responsible Fishing...33-34

Nets & Gear II (inc. trawl doors) ...35-41